The AVR full set back patches are to be sewn on a vest on the back side. No other patches, attachments, colorful designs, or the like, are allowed on the back side of the vest. The front of the vest's "name-tags" are: AVR – 1/A and your NAME tag placed approximately at chest-level. NOTE: No inappropriate images, political patches, attachments or pins of any kind are allowed on the AVR uniform attire.

Motorcycle Riders and Veterans are required to have a solid black AVR uniform vest. AVR Troops who do not ride motorcycles may wear any solid-color vest upon approval by the Council Officers. Cut-off sleeve vests are not approved as an AVR uniform attire.

The AVR emblem (back patch set) is a Trademark logo and property of the American Veteran Riders Association. These patches are specifically for current AVR members only. If a member decides to leave AVR, the departing member may donate the emblem or sell back to AVR. The departing member may also opt to keep the AVR emblem with the acknowledgement and agreement to not wear the AVR emblem in accordance with the bylaws of the American Veteran Riders Association.
